Dinners and Luncheons

Mrs. Thomas H. Logan and the Misses Logan entertained on Friday afternoon with a well appointed and enjoyable "tea" at their home, 1304 Montana street. The affair was in honor of Mrs. C. R. Morehead and Mrs. Frank D. Wickham. On Tuesday Mrs. Wickham was called by telegram to Yuma, Ariz., to join her husband, Capt. Frank D. Wickham, 12th Infantry, and was consequently unable to be present; much to the disappointment of the guests. The house was decorated in chrysanthemums and carnations.

In the living room were large cut glass vases holding beautiful yellow and pink chrysanthemums. Miss Grace Logan, Mrs. Thomas H. Logan and Mrs. C. R. Morehead received the guests. The dining table was exquisite with a handsome Battenberg cloth covering it. In the center stood a black Bohemian glass vase filled with pink carnations. Crystal candlesticks held candles with pink shades and pink and white mints also gave a touch of color. Mrs. J. E. Bowdoin and Mrs. Winston Pettus presided at the table and poured coffee and chocolate. Tempting refreshments were served in two courses. Those assisting the hostess were Mrs. G. T. Newman, Misses Lemire Nebeker, Mary Redmond, Frances Mayfield and Karna Dean. Many guests enjoyed the afternoon.

New Lines and Material

The more woolly the more fashionable seems to be the conclusion, after looking at the season's suits and coats.

This suit, although very heavy looking, is really light in weight, the material being loosely woven. The color is a reddish brown, with plimping and buttons of black velvet.

The coat is slightly curved at the sides by darts, and has a vest front of mustard colored cloth, closed with crystal buttons. A new effect is noticed in the skirt, the tonic swinging where it disappears under the back where it disappears under the black panel.

The Most That 15c Will Buy

A party of El Paso men were discussing at random the other evening the most that 15c would buy. After a great number of items had been suggested, one man, who had previously said nothing, arose to the occasion and remarked: "Gentlemen, I have probably at one time or another purchased every item you have mentioned, but it was only the other day that I found the very best thing that could possibly be purchased for 15c." One of the party inquiring as to what it was, he said: "A bottle of White's Guaranteed Corn Cure." Now this man was right, because when you take into consideration not only absolute relief from pain, but the complete removal of troublesome corns—all for 15c—you have certainly gotten your money's worth. If you have corns you can remove them quickly with White's Guaranteed Corn Cure. Made, sold and recommended by Scott, White & Co., 204 Mills Street, Dept. Pharmacy, 604 San Francisco St. (Advertisement)

Everyone Wants His Glasses Right and Wants Them Right Away

PROBABLY no business in the world is as exacting as the optical business. This refers not only to the correct fitting of glasses but getting them out on time. It very often happens that the lack of glasses for half a day not only inconveniences the wearer, but results in a real business loss.

If you would have your glasses absolutely right and have them when promised, the only place in El Paso where you can get just this service is here

Women's Organizations

As the cold weather approaches the district nurse wishes to appeal to The Herald readers to look over their stocks at home and see if there are any old mattresses, bed quilts, springs, coats or bedsteads that can be spared from use this winter and call up the Women's Charity association, 1645, so that the association may send for them and get them into use immediately. Many old and sick among the charity cases are lying on adobe floors without cover enough to keep warm. Old heavy wraps, blankets, rugs and carpets can be used to excellent advantage also, and warm little garments for small babies are in great demand for sick and well babies in their homes. These things will gladly be sent for by the W. C. A. and will be given where they will do the most good.

ARMY OFFICERS DO RIDING STUNTS

New Order No. 19 Requires Cavalry and Artillery Officers to Do Difficult Feats.

Stunts in horsemanship are to be performed by United States army officers. The men at Fort Bliss are wondering what order No. 19 is going to do to them, for they think they, too, may be included and have to get their horses trained for the ordeal before the close of the present year.

According to the new order, the commissioned officers must ride three miles in 11 minutes on horses. But, but, but is not all. On the ride they must stick to the hurricane deck of their dabbies while the horses jump over stone ditches, such as stone walls, stumps or logs at least three feet high. Then they must hunt out three ditches at least six feet wide and two and one-half feet high and jump across them, all the time sitting in their saddles. Only the artillery and cavalry officers are to be required to do these things. Some of them say they can and others think they cannot. Their horses, the young and green and have not had such training.

"Of course," said one officer, "we might buy some horses that have been used to following the hounds on a fox chase, and they would do the tricks, but they would not be fit for anything else. Imagine riding a trick horse onto a battlefield. We must have horses that are equal to such conditions as battles, and they are not trained to skip the rope and jump over dry ditches, but orders is orders."

SCALES ON SCALP PAINFUL ITCHING

Scratching Caused Sores. Hair Came Out in Large Quantities. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Scalp Sound and Well.

Muskogee, Okla.—"For more than a year I was afflicted with scalp disease. There were large white flakes or scales which caused the painful itching and my scratching would bring blood and cause sores. My hair came out in large quantities and what remained was thin, dry and lifeless. My temples were completely bare. During this time I tried everything that I thought would help me but nothing seemed to do any good. A friend advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I sent and got a sample of each which I tried as directed, and I truly say that the first application did me good. I afterwards purchased a full-sized can of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. I bathed with Cuticura Soap and applied Cuticura Ointment. At the end of about four weeks my scalp was sound and well and my hair had thickened up and grown wonderfully in such a short time. I am proud to say that I am entirely cured of my scalp trouble and my hair temples have a full growth of hair again." (Signed) Mrs. D. W. McClellan, Dec. 16, 1911.

For red, rough, chapped and bleeding hands, itching, burning palms, and painful finger-ends with shapless nails, a one-night Cuticura treatment works wonders. Soak hands, on retiring, in hot water and Cuticura Soap. Dry, anoint with Cuticura Ointment, and wear soft bandages or old, loose gloves during the night. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere. Sample of each mailed free, with 33-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap shaving stick, 25c. Sample free.
